CLASS WILL

KNOWING that the class of '37 and the other classes will be lost without our guidance and suggestions, we, the class of 1936, bequeath

Mary Dodson's intelligence to Bob Davis.
Ray Donnelly's interest in the south end to Elmer Menefee.
Jack Cassle's ambition to Charles Duffin.
Violet Call's modesty to Eleanor Furstenberger.
Fred Dettmer's generosity to Ted Harirman.
Virginia Mewhinney's chewing gum and knock of advising the love-lorn to anyone who wants it.
Claude Modesitt's way with the women to Eugene Muench.
Thelma Powell's giggle to Helen Jane Miles.
Rubyann Malasz's bangs to Dolores Miller.
Kate Haisley's habit of looking for nickels in pay telephones to La Verne Woolford.
Nathan Hawkins' spit curls to Ray Bolinger.
Rex Herbert's football ability to John Freed.
Karl Hessler's debating ability to Adolph Schmidt.
Charlene Hunsicker's talent to Dorothy Mae Smith.
Lois Smith's ability to dance to Eleanor Montgomery.
Frieda Kime's ability to drive a car to George Schull.
Leon Maehling's hair oil to Milton Archer.
Tom Reed's love for Bob Davis to Eleanor Briggs.
Sam Beecher's ambition to Dave Shannon.
Jack Hall's sense of humor to Leo Deming.
The prestige of the class of '36 to the class of '37.
Our ability to study to the class of '39.
Our school spirit to the class of '38.
To Mr. Zimmerman our gratitude for his cooperation.
Our thanks and appreciation for her interest to Miss Ageng.
All of the yellow paper we have not used to the faculty as a reminder to pass the tests to underclassmen.

Signed,

THE CLASS OF 1936.

HISTORY OF CLASS OF 1936

WHEN a troop of two hundred fifteen freshmen entered Garfield in 1932, the biography of the class of 1936 began.

Class officers for 1933-1934 were Jack Appel, president; Rubyann Malasz, vice-president; Frieda Kime, secretary; and Jack Cassle, trasurer. We selected for our class colors green and gold. Miss Parker was chosen our class advisor. Our first class party was held at Lange.

As juniors we retained the same clas officers. From the Junior Jamboree in March to the Junior-Senior Prom, May 31, the spring term was alive with many activities. The success of the prom was largely due to the untiring efforts of Miss Parker. In July she experienced a serious accident while vacationing and was unable to be with us in our senior year. Miss Ageng was appointed to take her place.

Jack Hall was elected senior president; Raymond Donnelly, vice-president; Marjorie McDonald, secretary; and Jack Cassle, treasurer. The senior play "The Poor Nut," Homecoming, senior Benny drive, and a Christmas party provided an enjoyable last term for the twenty-five January graduates.

While seniors we enjoyed planning for our final activities. The Farewell Dance ended the last page of the biography of the class. We turn the page realizing that Garfield days are no more.

JUNIOR CLASS

THE present junior class entered Garfield in the fall of 1933 with an enrollment of about 225. During our second semester, Garfield had its disastrous fire, and we, together with the sophomores, were sent to Lange to carry on our work. That term we chose Miss Warner as advisor and elected the following officers: David Shannon, president; Marian Van Bibber, vice-president; Mary Pipes, secretary; Bob Davis, treasurer. Under their leadership, we had one party in our sophomore year, which was a huge success. It was held in the Lange Auditorium, with over a hundred sophomores present.

For our junior officers, we elected the following: John Freed, president; Byron Ferguson, vice-president; Mary Pipes, secretary; Raymond Bolinger, treasurer. In the fall term our largest task was selecting a class ring. We also held a party at Lange. Our last social affair was the prom given in honor of the graduating seniors.

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1936

Here and There

Sam Beecher, formerly of this city, has been appointed State Attorney-General by an overwhelming vote.

Elizabeth Pascoe just received a new position as secretary to Governor of New York.

Thelma Powell, congresswoman from Indiana, just introduced a new bill concerning old age pensions. It is considered superior to the Townsend plan.

Judge Harry Spears has awarded the decision to Grace Losier in the Losier-Pennington Triangle Case. (Incidentally, the third party was Homer Lewzader.)

Maricia Williams is the new congressional librarian. She says it's a rather difficult job.

Mary Cartwright is the present efficient secretary to the president.

Frieda Kime, noted corporation lawyer, has just won a case for Leo Hull.

Jack Hall has been appointed Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. He hopes to make some very unusual decisions. The appointment was due to his outstanding record as a lawyer.

Florence Snider has received the privilege of becoming the first woman president of the United States. She says the first thing she is going to do is take a fishing trip.

Karl Hessler is the vice-president of the United States. He says his class in public speaking helped him immensely.

Lura Warrick, well-known economist, has recently propounded the Warrick theory of a Solution of the Business Cycle.

Jack Appel is now supervising the construction of a large dam in Venezuela. Funny that Mary Alice Wells likes Venezuela too.

Doctors Marshall Alexander and Tom Reed yesterday performed an unusual operation at John Hopkins Hospital. The patient, Miss Hilda Mary Rowe, is reported to be on the high road to recovery. She was attended by Nurse Irene Kalb.

Clarence Jennings discovered last week what makes chewing gum sticky. To-date this is the only information he has given out.

Harriet Evans is the first woman chemist of the Eli Lilly Company. She is, at present, doing research work.

Doctor Albert Somers, professor of chemistry, yesterday announced his discovery of a new color to turn when you blush.

Marguerite Wycoff has just loaned her collection of rare butterflies and other insects to the Field Museum of Natural History in Chicago.

Ralph Hargis recently received instructions to pilot the submarine S256 to tropical waters. It must be due to his ability to keep in hot water.

Strike Averted

A walk-out on the part of the employees of the Novelty Paper Manufacturing Company in the eastern part of the city was averted late last night by the diplomacy of Vincent Kautz, assisted by his secretary, Maxine Davis.

Dance Recital

Irma Wood, noted ballet dancer, presented a recital before the King and Queen-Mother of Great Britain last evening. She is considered a second Pavlova. It was graciously received by Their Majesties.

Indianapolis News Has New "Boss"

Ben Smith, former prominent citizen of Terre Haute, was appointed managing editor of the Indianapolis News. His first connection with the paper was as a paper carrier in his home city.

Musicals

The Woman's Department Club is sponsoring a recital this evening in the club rooms on South Sixth St., featuring Mrs. Marjorie Maehling, formerly Marjorie McDonald, pianist, and her husband, Leon Maehling, baritone. An enjoyable evening is promised.

The Terre Haute Symphony will present its third concert on the schedule for this season, Friday evening, at the Hippodrome Theatre. Two former Garfield students, Charlotte Ellis, cellist, and Lester Butts, violinist, are the featured soloists.

School News

There has been a number of changes in the school faculties for the coming school year. Prominent among these are those at Garfield.

Katherine Wrabel is to be head of the Commercial Department.

Nathan Hawkins will be a Latin teacher.

Muriel Hanners will be head of the English Department and advisor for the Pensters.

Betty Jenkins will be an instructor in typing.

Mary Bovenschulte has been appointed Dean of Women.

Marie Trueblood will be a teacher of Home Economics, as will Mary Doyle.

Margaret Grant will be the physical training instructor for girls.

Virginia Simpson will be an economics teacher.

Virginia Smith is to teach harmony, music appreciation, and voice.

Mary Dodson will teach mathematics. She is a rival of Miss Warner.

Winston Henderson has been appointed to the chair of scientific agriculture at Purdue University.

Charlene Hunsicker has been appointed assistant instructor and spiritual advisor in the Newton Conservatory of Music.

Clarence Shockley will be the instructor of biology at Indiana State Teachers' College.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Dear Miss Mewhinney,

I took the advice you offered me in last week's paper and have found happiness.

Thankfully yours,

WILMA SCHUHARDT.

Answer: I am truly glad to hear of your good fortune. Don't hesitate to write again if more thorns cross your path.

V. M.

Dear Miss Mewhinney,

I thought I had married a good, old-fashioned girl. But to my sorrow I discovered later that she smoked cigarettes. Miss Mewhinney, is there anything I can do to prevent this? It is breaking up my home.

Hopefully yours,

FRED DETTMER.

Answer: It is a tragedy, isn't it, Fred? You will just have to adjust yourself to the fact just as you would to any other difficult situation.

V. M.

Dear Miss Mewhinney,

We two girls care for the same person. What do you advise us to do?

VIRGIANIA ELLIS and VIRGINIA THOMAS.

Answer: I think you should leave the decision to that person, don't you? Even though it is leap year, you must consider the third party.

V. M.

Societies

A meeting of the North-side Social Club was held at the home of Martha Jane Stark Thursday afternoon. Those present were the Misses Maurine Allenbaugh, Victoria Thomas, Frances Smith, Margaret Roman, La Verne Arthur, Virginia Cook, Virginia Merke, and the hostess.

The semi-monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Maple Avenue M. E. Church was held at the home of Emma Grissom, Wednesday. It was an all-day affair. Those present included the Misses Maxine Foster, Mary Doyle, Pauline Poindexter, Savina Borgnini, Bernice Scanlan, Ruby Chapman, and the hostess.

Weddings and Engagements

There are a number of weddings scheduled for this month, which will unite members of the younger set.

Miss Jane Marley and Roy Jenkins.

Miss Mildred Smith and Vincent Miller.

Miss Kathleen Cuning and ??? (If at first you don't succeed, try, try again.)

Miss Maxine Clark and Crown Prince of Denmark.

Miss Dorothy Elbrecht and Stuart Martin. The bridesmaid at this wedding will be Enola Scank.

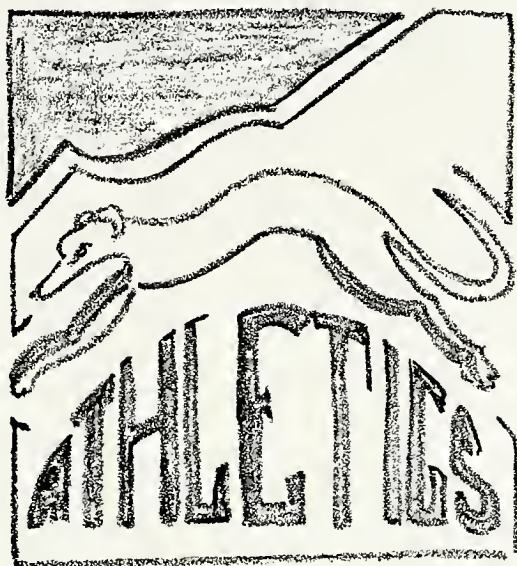

Miss Alecia Hutchinson and Edwin Gaston.

Miss Frances Freeman and Bernard Sampson.

MR. PIKE

O E. PIKE was born in Plainfield, Indiana, and attended Plainfield High. He graduated from Franklin College with a Bachelor of Arts degree. Mr. Pike has taken post-graduate work at the universities of Illinois, Indiana, and California. He obtained a position at Clinton High School in 1922 where he taught physical education and coaching. In 1923, he accepted the same position at Garfield and has been turning out football teams for the Purple and White ever since. In 1933, the task of chemistry teaching was added to his already many duties.

MR. CONOVER

JAMES CONOVER was born in Terre Haute. He attended Garfield High School and received his diploma there. Mr. Conover graduated from the Indiana State Teachers' College with a Bachelor of Science Degree. Later, he attended Columbia Teachers' College from where he received the Master of Arts degree. In 1924, Mr. Conover taught mathematics and coached basketball at Scircleville High School, Scircleville, Indiana. In 1925, he was transferred to Garfield where he has been teaching physical education and coaching basketball up to the present time.

GARFIELD 28—TECH 0

THE lights at the Memorial Stadium were lighted on September 20 for this first game of the City Series. The actual play was considerably one-sided. Blocking and tackling in a mid season form plus an offense that could not be denied, the Eagles scored touchdowns in every quarter except the final one.

GARFIELD 43—DUGGER 0

THE Dugger game was played at the Memorial Stadium on Saturday afternoon, September 28. The visitors were rated as one of the most outstanding defensive teams in the valley.

A fine game was played by every member of the team. Six touchdowns, one of which was scored by the reserve team, one safety, and five points after touchdowns account for the final score, 43 to 0.

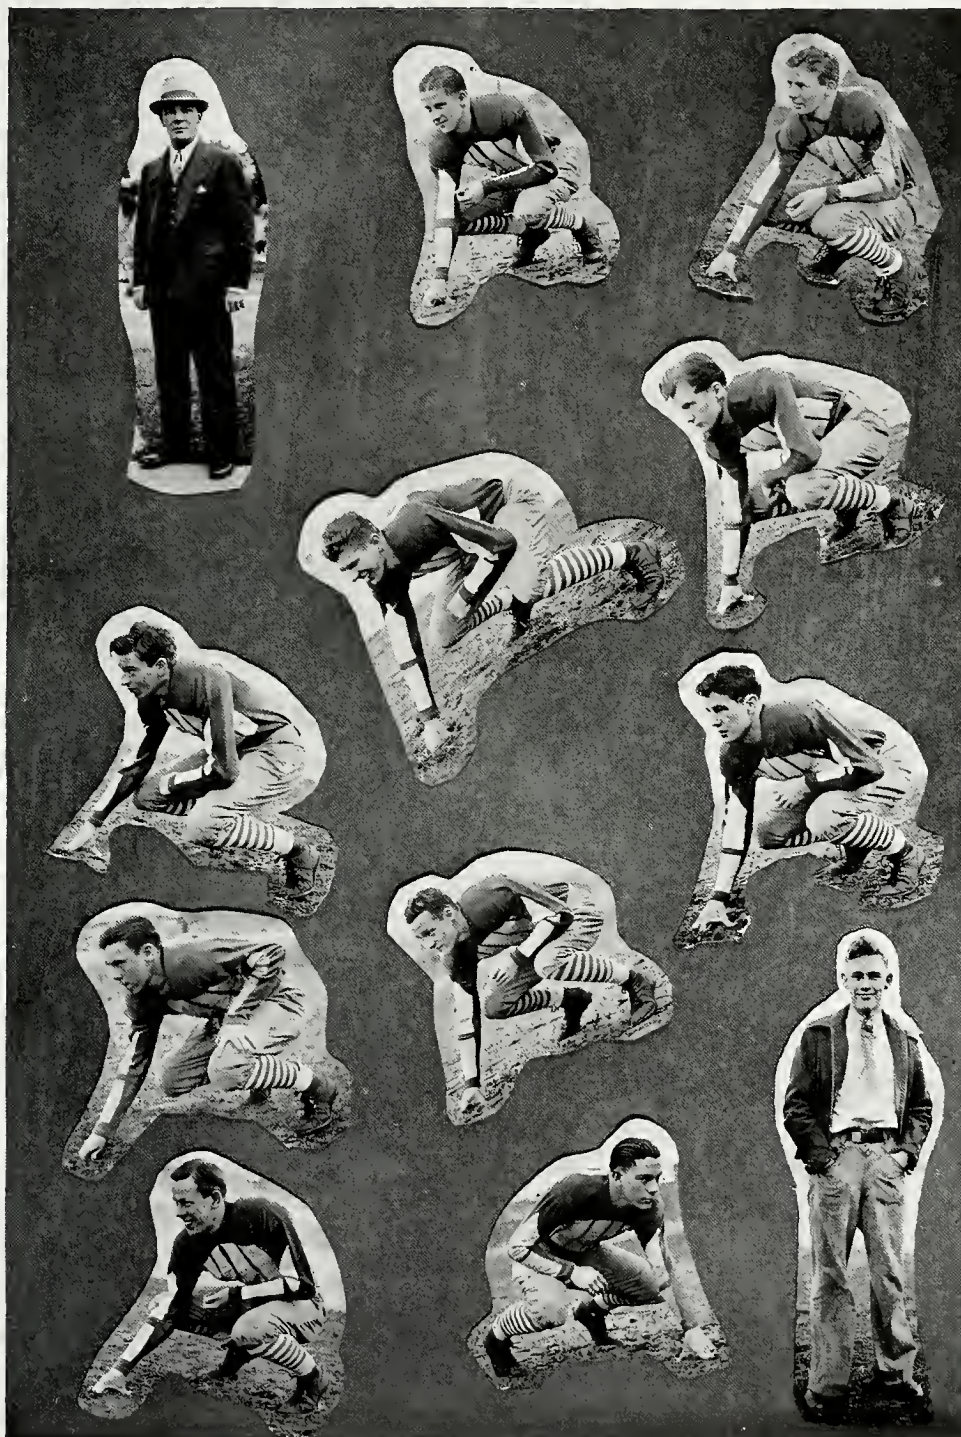

THE GARFIELD

GARFIELD 21—SULLIVAN 0

THE first real test for the Purple Eagles came on October 4, when they met Sullivan's Golden Arrows. The game proved to be a thriller throughout for the large crowd of enthusiastic fans. A much improved style of ball was displayed by the Eagles throughout the contest. The Arrows played a much more colorful game at times than did the Eagles. Their lateral passes netted considerable yardage, but consistent gains were not among their fortunes.

The defeat of Sullivan brought many compliments from scribes and followers, which labeled the 1935 Purple Eagle outfit a strong Wabash Valley title contender.

GARFIELD 6—ROBINSON 0.

THE Robinson game was chiefly a defensive one. Both teams presented strong lines, and the backfields were very evenly matched. Much of the game was a punting duel. On only two occasions did the Eagles reach the Robinson twenty yard line, excepting during the final three minutes, when a long spectacular run netted the lone touchdown of the game for Garfield. Though the score was not large, the play was exciting and closely contested throughout.

REITZ MEMORIAL 0—GARFIELD 0

THE Garfield Homecoming football game was played at the City Athletic field on Saturday afternoon, November 9. Six thousand fans witnessed the struggle, which ended in a scoreless tie. A large crowd of rooters, totaling about one thousand, and a sixty piece band accompanied the Memorial team to Terre Haute.

The big thrill of the game came about the middle of the fourth quarter, after a Garfield punt had been blocked. The ball was given to Memorial on the Purple eighteen yard mark. For several tense moments, the Eagle defense functioned perfectly as it stopped the four tries of the opponent to score. After several minutes more of scrimmage in mid-field, the game ended.

GARFIELD 20—GEORGETOWN 0.

A TEAM which merited one of the top positions among Illinois high school elevens served as guest of the Purple Eagles on November 16, at the city athletic field. Garfield, after a hard game, ran up a score of 20-0.

GARFIELD 20—WILEY 6

THE twenty-first meeting of the Garfield and Wiley football teams on Turkey Day commanded a more important and talked of position than had any previous annual meeting of the two schools. With a Wabash Valley title, as well as a city championship at stake, plus the Gold Turkey trophy, the spirit at Garfield reached its pinnacle on Wednesday preceeding the game. Large parades sponsored by both schools were only a portion of the pre-game activities held during the week.

The score 20 to 6, was one of the largest in the history of the Turkey Day competition. Despite the fact that the goal line had been crossed in this last game, Garfield still claimed a perfect record without a single loss for the 1935 campaign. In addition, by virtue of the Wiley defeat, a Wabash Valley Championship was annexed; city football supremacy was earned; and the Bronze Turkey, token of Thanksgiving Day victory, will rest in the trophy case at Garfield for at least one more year.

GARFIELD 21—VALLEY HIGH 20

ON November 29, Garfield traveled across the river and paid a visit to the Valley High cagers of West Terre Haute. Jim Conover took so many men for the game, which was a pre-season affair, that the floor was literally cluttered with Eagles and Eaglets. The game proved to be a rough and tumble affair with the Eagles winning, almost at the last second, 21 to 20.

GARFIELD 20—CLINTON 10

FRIDAY, December 6, the Garfield Purple Eagles met the Clinton Wild Cats at the Wiley gym. Fouls were the feature item on the program in the Eagle victory.

GARFIELD 19—PRINCETON 21

EIGHT players were rewarded for their efforts in practice and made the trip to Princeton to uphold the Purple and White honor. They made a brave but futile effort, losing to a much larger team, 21 to 19.

GARFIELD 27—LINTON 19

GETTING back on their "home" floor, the Wiley gym, the Eagles played a much improved brand of ball on December 21, turning back the highly touted Linton Miners, 27 to 19.

GARFIELD 17—BRAZIL 29

AFTER a one game "winning streak," the Garfield quintet ran up against Babe Wheeler's Brazil High team. The Red Devils lived up to all the sport writers' expectations and presented a zone defence which stopped the "figure eight" at all times.

GARFIELD 20—OTTER CREEK 18

ON December 27, the Garfield squad started in the general direction of the north pole but, when their bus ran out of gas near the Otter Creek High School, took time out to offer the so-far undefeated Otters some opposition. The game proved to be a thriller, or, at least, that's what paying customers thought, the outcome being decided in the last ten seconds of play. It was a hard fought victory, but the Eagles earned every bit of it.

GARFIELD 22—WILEY 27

ON January 1, Garfield and Wiley met at the State in their annual New Year's Day game. Playing before a capacity crowd, the fellows were spurred on to greater efforts, and some mighty good basketball was presented by both teams. They played on even terms for three quarters, but in the final stanza, the Red Streaks started hitting shots which weren't intended for high school use, winning 27 to 22.

GARFIELD 33—TECH 9

THE following Friday, January 3, the Eagles met the Tech Black Cats in another city series game. The Cats were inexperienced and were defeated, 33 to 9.

GARFIELD 14—SULLIVAN 28

THE Purple and White quintet played their worst game of the season against the Sullivan golden arrows on January 10. The Eagles got a very slow start, scoring only one field goal during the entire first half and were never within a striking distance of the winners.

Wabash Valley Tourney

GARFIELD 16—RILEY 22

THE Riley Cossacks handed the Eagles their second straight defeat when they met at the Otter Creek gym in the fourth game of the first round of the Wabash Valley Tourney.

GARFIELD 24—GLENN 26

ON January 31, Garfield met the Glenn Pirates in the first game of a double-header at the Wiley gym. The game was a fast-moving thriller, with the Pirates winning by one basket in an overtime period.

GARFIELD 29—ALEXANDRIA 24

NORMAN COTTOM, former Wiley star, brought his Alexandria quintet to Terre Haute on February 7. Disregarding the advance dope, our Purple Eagles turned in a neat game, winning by a score of 29-24.

GARFIELD 25—INDIANA MASONIC HOME 14

ON February 15, Garfield High met and feated the Indiana Masonic Home cagers for the second time in as many years.

GARFIELD 21—HONEY CREEK 20

THE Eagles traveled south of the city Febrnary 21, to Honey Creek High. After a rough and tumble battle for thirty-two minutes, the Conovermen won 21 to 20.

GARFIELD 27—REITZ MEMORIAL 22

AFTER a very pleasant trip to Evansville, the Garfield team met and defeated the highly touted Reitz Memorial five, thus getting revenge for the 0-0 tie during the football season.

GARFIELD 24—CLOVERDALE 28

ON February 24, Garfield, playing at the Wiley gym, lost to Cloverdale, one of the Wabash Valley finalists, by a score of 28 to 24.

State Sectionals

ON March 5 and 6, a state sectional tourney was held at Wiley gym. Garfield drew a bye in the first round, beat Honey Creek 28-10 in the second round, and fought their way into the finals by winning over Blackhawk, 25-19. In the finals, however, the Purple Eagles ran up against their old rivals, Wiley's Red Streaks, and after a hard fought game, were defeated.

GARFIELD PLAYERS

AS the curtain was drawn on another year's activities, the members of the club were under the able leadership of the following officers: Mary Alice Wells, president; Bob Davis, vice-president; Jane Lyons, secretary-treasurer; Miss Jewel Ferguson, faculty advisor. The young followers of the stage eagerly await the arrival of each Friday when the auditorium houses their gayety, laughter, deep interest, applause, and their keen enjoyment of both their work and their play at the weekly meetings. They endeavor to present at least one short play each meeting; once a month, however, a party is given. At these times, stage decorating is momentarily forgotten; and the players concentrate on interior decorating.

As this club is always very active in school affairs, several important events are presented during the year: presentation of "The Phantom Tiger," a mystery thriller; the boys' play, in which the masculine members adopt the feminine dress and manner to the amusement of the audience; the assemblies which the organization presents; the holding of open house, when the public is admitted to the meetings. To the members, a very important event is the banquet at the close of each year's activities.

To obtain membership in the club, the candidate must successfully demonstrate his dramatic ability to a committee of judges whose votes decide on the eligibility of the candidate. Also, a strict limitation is placed on the membership, the maximum being twenty-five boys and the same number of girls.

The Garfield Players have been honored in many ways. They are considered one of the outstanding organizations of the school. Through the study of the drama and under the leadership of Miss Ferguson, the players have naturally gained a knowledge of human nature and of the art of living harmoniously with others. It is largely because of this that the club is outstanding.

A Christmas cantata, "The King's Coming," was presented by the choir and orchestra, December 18. On February 4, we gave a musical comedy entitled "The Haunted House."

In October, owing to the demand of the students Miss Duncan organized a band. Mr. Stanford Gilley came to Garfield in December as a practice teacher and began directing the band and teaching different instruments. Under his capable direction the members have become quite accomplished performers as was clearly shown at the band concert given May 6.

Special mention should be made of our new school song, "Purple and White," which was written by Russell McCoy, a senior.

On May 20, we closed the year with the annual spring concert, in which all the glee clubs took part as well as the orchestra.

THE annual senior class play, "The Poor Nut," was presented Thursday, October 31, and Friday, November 1, at the Garfield auditorium, under the direction of Miss Jewel Ferguson. The cast, headed by Charles Hague, Mary Alice Wells, Sam Beecher, and Henrietta Anderson, was quite large because the play was centered around a college track meet. The social and athletic life at Ohio State College were well interpreted, and the play was a great success.

THE GARFIELD

UNDER the capable leadership of Katherine Haisley and with the splendid co-operation of all the council girls and club members, the Garfield Blue Tri has just completed another successful year.

The impressive Recognition Service worked out by Miss Dawson, was used in both the fall and spring terms. The one in the fall term was held on Sunday afternoon so that the parents and friends might attend and understand the meaning of Blue Tri.

Thirteen girls took their rings at the beautiful Feast of the Lanterns at Deming Park in May, thereby pledging themselves to live the life symbolized by the Girl Reserve ring.

Go-to-Church Sunday was observed December 8, at the First Baptist Church and again April 26, at Washington Avenue Presbyterian.

The Service Committee members have been very active in their work this year. Their most outstanding activity was at Christmas and again at Easter when they brought the joy of these two seasons into the home of a needy family by providing not only some of the necessities of life but also a Christmas tree, toys, and the Easter novelties that children enjoy so much. The entire club helped with these service projects.

In order to foster a spirit of friendship, a number of delightful parties were given this year under the guidance of the Social Committee. Included in these, were the farewell parties, a party given at the Quaker Maid Camp, a mid-term surprise party, and a Leap Year party, which was given at Lange. The dance, Anchor's Away, which was a great success, was held at the Deming Ballroom, October 12. Another social event was the annual Mothers' Tea, held at Garfield, Sunday, May 3.

An added impetus was given to building good programs by making each committee responsible for one program and giving an award to the one which showed to the highest degree careful planning, originality, and a theme appropriate to the aims of Blue Tri. The music and devotions added much to the success of the varied and interesting programs which resulted from this combined effort.

The Ways and Means Committee has aided the club financially by giving a very successful bridge and style show this spring; and by selling candy at noon and at the football and basketball games.

Through the programs of devotions, service work, and social activities, the Blue Tri has tried this year to develop the three sides of a girl's personality: the social, the spiritual, and the physical, thus carrying out the purpose of Blue Tri.

SCIENCE CLUB

THE Garfield Science Club was organized in the spring of 1934. It was originally open to boys only, but later girls were admitted. At present it has a membership of about thirty students. It sponsored this fall a "Snake Show" which was attended by some hundred persons. The club also sponsored an "Open House" for grade school children. Its purpose is to create a further interest in science.

ton is the social butterfly of this "burg." Watch your step, Nellie!

Virgil Hammelman, commercial artist, is doing the scenery for the "Poor Nut" in which Charles Hague is to star.

Mildred Meadows is singing at the Sky Club. She's very good, they say. Another singer and entertainer, Mildred Reveal, is at the Chez Paree.

August Siefertman is, reputedly, on his second million and, incidentally, his second wife.

Ralph Cox is appearing on Major Bowes' Amateur Hour this Sunday. Be sure to listen.

Norman Thompson has taken Officer Rickelman's place.

Vivian Deighton is quite a success this season in the Ziegfield Follies.

Arthur Cartwright and Howard Henne-man are two of the gayest playboys I've seen.

You should see Tony Divincenzo as a one-man band playing this week at the Indiana Theater where Floyd See is the expert stage manager.

Ray Donnelly has just opened his ritzy club, the "Continental." Ray out-did himself this time.

Martha Doty, also among the openings this week, has a beauty salon.

One of the current hits on the radio is Marie Lovelette. As the "singing lady," she entertains many kiddies each afternoon.

I saw Bill Kratz yesterday evening wheeling a set of twins and leading a French pooch. It must be a dog's life, Bill.

Ruth Pirtle, beauty expert from Hollywood, has the best profile!

Lucille Turner is that very efficient bookkeeper about whom certain people have been writing me.

Julian Winstead is the current rival of Cab Callaway.

Marian Woods has been unanimously voted the foremost moden of this country. They say that Paris models have nothing on Marian.

I saw Helen Walser, the other night, tripping the light fantastic with a certain popular playboy.

Nadine Von Eute is a highpowered saleswoman at the five and ten cent store.

Ernest McHenry recently redecorated Mary Louise McLin's apartment.

Mary Evelyn Byerly and Mildred Parrett are students at the new "School for Brides."

Charles Parrett has opened a garage. As double protection, he has retained Estal Snyder as his lawyer.

Eldon Sutphin is that new caterer at the Coronado Club that people have been inquiring about.

They say Bob Smith is a confirmed hermit.

La Verne Spencer is well-known on the Indianapolis Speedway.

Betty Jane Stoker has succeeded a once popular star, Myrna Loy.

It has been said that Edith Taylor holds the record for quick marriages and divorces.

Betty Scott is circling the Globe again. Got the jitters, Betty?

Evelyn Gore is the current sensation at the Cotton Club.

Norman Eder is the new editor for the New York Daily.

King Fasig is now owner of a new dancing school for bashful boys. Charles Wilson was his first student.

Bill Green is a second Walter Winchell.

GOING TO COLLEGE?

FOR a fortunate few, a college education is assured. For others, it means saving and sacrifice. Yet to one who learns, early, the lesson of thrift and saving, the financial problem of college training is often simplified.
